

WALLEY CREEK SEGMENT OVERVIEW

Walley Creek is 2199m in length. 509m is open undisturbed channel, 122m is altered to culverts or pipes and 1567m lies within City Parks (with 117m of that in a wetland). 11,208m of storm drain leads to Walley Creek within the watershed and as a result 84% of water catchment is from surface run off into storm drains.

Legend

- Protected Stream
- Culverts
- Storm Drains
- Wetland
- Walley Creek
- Rivers

This Map displays data collected and analyzed from the city of Nanaimo Open Data Catalog and the RDN Spatial Data Files.

Water Catchment Of Walley Creek

